

Network Access Form Student

Dear Parent or Guardian,

The Oklahoma City Public School District is pleased to offer student's access to the Internet via computer network instructional technology resources. This instructional technology network of the Oklahoma City Public School District represents a powerful educational resource which will allow your child to find information anywhere in the world. Your child will be able to connect to museums, major universities, national libraries, other schools, and students around the world. Use of the District's computer technology network resources for educational projects will assist in preparing your child for success in life and work in the 21st Century.

From school, your child can travel all over the world to gather information. It is possible that your child will find material on the Internet that you would consider objectionable. Although the District's Acceptable Use Policy outlines appropriate use of network resources in the school environment, we cannot guarantee that your child will not gain access to inappropriate material. The Oklahoma City Public School District believes that the benefits to educators and students from access to network resources, in the form of information and opportunities for collaboration, far exceed any disadvantages.

Your child's teacher has reviewed the Oklahoma City Public School District Acceptable Use Policy with his/her class and has explained the importance of using computer resources appropriately. We want to make you familiar with these policies as well. Before your child can access the network resources, both you and your child must read the Oklahoma City Public School District Acceptable Use Policy and complete a Network Access Form.

This signed form grants your child permission to access, produce, and videoconference and communicate information on the network resources for the current school year. Violating the Acceptable Use Policy may result in loss of network privileges and/or other District disciplinary measures.

Please note that your child's work may be published on the District's computer network resources, including, but no limited to World Wide Web pages. Student's pictures, work, artwork, or projects will be identified by first name and grade only. Additionally, your son or daughter may participate in video-conferencing or network activities that utilize the Internet or other global computer networking resources.
