Fight Song

We are the Bears
 from John Marshall,
 we travel on brave and true
 We hold our colors over all,
 The red and royal blue Rah! Rah!
 We're here to do our best,
 so we can win every test.
 And when the vict'ry is won we'll sing the praises of John Marshall High!

Alma Mater

"All hail, our Alma Mater,
 All hail to the Red and Blue.
 We cherish your tradition,
 forever brave and true!
 In all our undertakings,
 we'll grateful be to Thee
 We shall remember always Thy Royal Victories!
 All hail to Thee, All hail to Thee,
 hail Bears and the Red and Blue.
 We shall remember always,
 All hail John Marshall School!"

What's In a Name

John Marshall was born on September 24, 1755. At 25, he was licensed to practice law and thereafter began a political career. He was elected to the Virginia legislature and later served as a U. S. Congressman from Virginia. He was also named Secretary of State.

In 1801, Marshall was appointed Chief Justice of the United States. He was said to "have made the court Supreme." Marshall's opinions on the court were always preceded with careful thought and study, yet he signed into law more decisions than any other justice of the Supreme Court. His wisdom was widely regarded, and he is considered a man who put the interest of his country above all else. His wisdom and foresight helped to strengthen the then-untried U. S. Constitution, and his effect on constitutional law was profound. Upon his death on July 6, 1835, the Liberty Bell was rung as a memorial; it cracked inexplicably.
