

Feeder Patterns

Feeder patterns are the schools that students feed into based on their home address. Some elementary schools have off site PreK centers. Application schools do not have boundary lines or fit within a feeder pattern.

